(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) PARKERSBURG (Kan.) July 10.—A head-on collision between two local freight trains on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad near Wymark, 17 miles from Parsons, today killed five men and injured three others.

The petitioner seeks to recover $900,000 from the syndicate.

WILLARD'S MARRIAGE BUREAU.

Will Arrange to Unite American Money With British Title, With a Male and Female Thrown In.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) LONDON, July 10.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) A newspaper agent, the late Frank E. Willard, kinsman of the late Frances E. Willard of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, has come here to establish a private matrimonial bureau, devoted to arranging matches between American women with money and Europeans of title and good family.

The paper quotes Willard as saying in an interview: "You would be amazed by the number of girls and women in the United States who are eager to exchange their money for social position gained by wedding a title. As for titled men, we all know they have no objection to marrying money. We expect to do business all over Europe, but naturally the British title is the most negotiable. We purchase a charge of a percentage on the income brought to the husband and a fixed rate for the title diverted to the wife. The business will be wholly confidential. Our office will be in one of the smart hotels."

MOB DEFIED POLICE.

Gives Battle From Behind Street Baricades at Lemberg, Galicia—More Than a Hundred Persons Wounded.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) LONDON, July 10.—(By Atlantic Cable.) "More than a hundred persons, including troops and police, were wounded today (Monday) in an encounter at Lemberg," says the Vienna correspondent of the Daily Express, "growing out of an attempt, and the police to stop street parades held in a demonstration on behalf of the unemployed."

The mob threw up barricades and defied the police. Troop says: "Mr. in, and charged again and again, using bayonets and bullets. Ultimately the demonstrators were dislodged. Lemberg is strongly guarded by troops, but it is reported that the mob is preparing for another fight during the night."

BRYAN CRITICIZES OHIO CONVENTION'S ACTIONS.

SHOULD HAVE VOTED FOR AN UN-DRESSED PROPOSITION.

He Is Not a Candidate for Any Office and the Platform Ought Not to Have Borne His Weight—Money Issue Not Settled.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) LINCOLN (Neb.) July 10.—In extended comment on the platform adopted by the Ohio Democratic convention, W. J. Bryan criticizes the convention for the failure to reaffirm the Kansas City platform, and for what he regards as the weakness of some of the planks it did adopt.

Bryan insists that the convention made a mistake in making himself an issue.

Bryan is not a candidate for any office, and a mention of him might have been construed by some as an endorsement of him for office.

The vote should have been upon the naked proposition, to endorse the platform of last year, and then no one could have excused this abandonment of Democratic principles by pleading his dislike for Mr. Bryan.

Referring to the platform, he continued:

"The convention not only failed, but refused to endorse or reaffirm the Kansas City platform, and from the manner in which the gold plank was rejected over this failure of the convention, one would suppose that the main object of the convention was to write a new platform, but to repudiate the one upon which the last national campaign was fought."

"The gold plank assumes that the convention refused to adopt the Kansas City platform, because it contained a silver plank. If so, the convention has been more courageous to have if the gold standard is rejected, it ought to have been endorsed; if bad, it ought to have been denounced. To ignore the subject entirely was inexcusable."

"The money question is not yet out of politics. Every session of Congress will have to deal with it. Republicans declare that it is dead, but they continue working at it."

Bryan comments upon parts of the platform, especially those relating to State and municipal affairs. He endorses the nomination of the convention, and says that he is disappointed in the Senatorial fight, and the reported candidacy of John R. McLean, he says:

"Did the leaders ignore the money question in one place, rather than in another? Or does Mr. McLean want to be left free to affiliate with the Republican national committee in case of his election?"

He concludes as follows: "If any of the Ohio Democrats feel aggrieved because the reorganizing element of the party triumphed at the convention, let them not visit their disappointment upon the State ticket, but rather accept the nominations of Senators and Representatives who will select a trustworthy Senator, let them remember that the State platform is made at the primaries next time rather than at the convention."

BOYCOTT OF AMERICA.

Highly Moral Cockneys Think the Ideals of Europe Are Endangered by Influx of American Goods.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) LONDON, July 10.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) In city circles, the projected continental boycott of American goods is taken much more seriously than by the Spectator, and there are some who do not share that paper's belief that England should not under the circumstances join such a movement.

Their view is that the menace of America is not merely a matter of trade. They profess to regard the question from a highly moral standpoint.

They say it is not the advantage of the world that a great nation should dominate it with ideals into which they allege nothing except money can enter and with systems of government in which money is the controlling power.

The ideals of Europe, they allege, have ever been higher than that, and to drop to the American standard would be a fatal error.

They say it will have to be done, they conclude, as to what the result will be, they think will be of the highest importance. At all events, they have decided to their own satisfaction that America will be placed in an awkward position.
